

HIGHRISE NOW

Leadership development and relationship building are the keys to success for any professional early in their career. With Highrise Now, you can join a growing community of hand-selected, high-level professionals that are dedicated to helping each other succeed. Enhance your core leadership skills and professional growth through a mix of traditional networking, in-depth conversations, industry panel discussions, and resource sharing.

GROUP MEETINGS

Our leadership groups gather virtually in a structured setting 12 times per year. Our virtual format means you will be able to attend more meetings and gain greater value from the community.

LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT

Every meeting for Now Members will include a knowledge and leadership growth component, starting off with time for self introductions and followed by a leadership development speaker. There will also be larger panel webinars that will dive deeper into high-demand subjects.

SKILLED MODERATORS

Meetings are led by our highly skilled moderators and formatted to create maximum impact. Group moderators are Highrise employees trained to engage Members of the group in relevant discussions and ask non-leading questions that encourage valuable feedback.

GATEWAY TO HIGHRISE NETWORKS

Highrise Networks is for top-achieving professionals who have more than 10 years of industry experience. As our Now Members gain experience, they can move up to Highrise Networks and garner all the benefits of our larger community.
